ABOUT THE BOOK

Nancy Zieman touched the lives of millions as they stitched alongside, or simply tuned in to watch, the inimitable Nancy Zieman and guests on Public Television's longest-running sewing show [35 years], Sewing With Nancy.

For the first time ever, Richard Zieman shares an intimate look into life with his beloved wife of 40 years, Nancy. Just like all of us, at times Nancy endured seemingly impossible circumstances and challenges. Richard shares insights into being a caregiver, and the blessings of support from family and close friends, during the almost four months Nancy was in Hospice care. Readers learn the physical battles Nancy faced, especially during the last five years of her life, while always retaining her faith and rising above it all.

Through it all, Nancy lived her true life as a daughter, niece, sister, aunt, wife, mother, grandmother, friend and fulfilled her true calling as an educator and inspiration to the world around her.

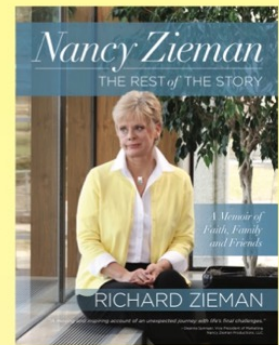

Included within this book is a DVD showing Nancy's life and the vitality in which she lived and how we all should remember her.

In the end though, this book is not as much about Nancy as it is about her faith and the life she lived as she continually focused on her favorite Bible verse, Proverbs 3:5, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding."

Nancy had overcome so many physical challenges in her life, I found it difficult to accept she wouldn't overcome her last illness as well. Knowing she still had so much she wanted to do, so many plans and ideas to bring to her audience, I know she felt the same about ending 'Sewing With Nancy'.

Even in the midst of her own challenges, Nancy let you know what you meant to her and that you mattered. I'd call that grace. Nancy had a lot of grace. And I miss her dearly.
